BOB DAY
AO
MEMBER

The contribution of Bob Day to the Australian community extends far beyond his business interests as one of Australia's leading home builders. His strong interest in youth unemployment, homelessness, urban planning, federalism and industrial relations has been reflected in a wide range of appointments which include:

- Former National President of the Housing Industry Association
- Founder of Independent Contractors of Australia
- Director of The Centre for Independent Studies
- Former member of the National Work for the Dole Advisory Committee
- Founder of nationbuild.com
- Chairman of The Great Australian Dream Project

On Australia Day 2003 he was appointed an Officer of the Order of Australia for service to the housing industry, to social welfare – particularly housing the homeless – and to the community. Later that same year he was awarded the Centenary of Federation medal for service to housing and charity. In 2005 he was awarded the Pride of Australia medal for 'Community Spirit' for restoring the village of Houghton and creating the Soldiers Memorial Walk and Remembrance Wall.

Bob chaired the North East Development Agency for almost a decade and under his guidance the organisation established a highly successful Business Enterprise Centre and the innovative North East Vocational College, which are the two principal activities of the organisation.

Bob's company, Home Australia owns some of the industry's best known brand names including Homestead Homes (SA), Collier Homes (WA), Ashford Homes (Vic) Newstart Homes (Qld) and Huxley Homes (NSW).
